Patent and Trademark office Thank you for rejecting the rabbit Ladies end Gentlemen: partent, fatent No. 6, 924, 413. I hope in the festure you will no longer issue patents on any animal. ow nation may become superior scientifically and technologically, but we shouldn't do so at the ofpense of our souls. We should encourage development of more humane testing. We should make great strides in secience but we should also make great strides in Compassion.
